OLD BUSINESS

Boys & Girls Club fruit cups: Rachel will call to investigate a cookie decorating event if possible in December.

Broker Bowl Off

The group suggested continuing next year and also tie in a charity component to the event. Consider benefiting AHIP or Salvation Army. Encourage brokerages to purchase lanes to build hype and excitement. Aim for an October event.

Angel Tree

Committee members encourage contacts to adopt the Angels. Staff will email the Group on Mon., Nov. 19th to confirm the number of Angels that still remain. ServPro of Charlottesville has offered the use of their box truck on Fri., Dec. 7th @ Noon to deliver donated items to Salvation Army. Staff will order a deli lunch tray for the group to enjoy while packing up gifts.

NEW BUSINESS

January Trivia Event

MK will ask Amanda about the trivia question formulation. Rachel will confirm Josh Metz as the emcee. Rachel will check availability of the Livery Stable.

Wake Up YPN Coffee Hour

Neil Williamson of Free Enterprise Forum agreed to present at the January event. Topics include new developments in the City or our counties. The event will be held in the CAAR conference room.

MEETING ADJOURNED: 1:55 p.m.

NEXT MEETING: Fri., Dec. 7th from 10 – 11 a.m.
