CAAR Celebrates the 2nd Pat Jensen Leadership Academy Class

Charlottesville, VA — The Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® (CAAR) announced the graduates of the 2nd Pat Jensen Leadership Academy class during a hybrid General Membership Meeting on Thursday, March 16th at the Hillsdale Conference Center.

Patricia B. Jensen was a CAAR Past President, REALTOR®, Broker, leader, and REALTORS® Political Action Committee (RPAC) advocate, who passed in 2017. As a tribute to her legacy, the Pat Jensen Leadership Academy was established in 2017.

The Academy is intended to foster knowledge and encourage further movement into additional leadership roles in the REALTOR® organization at the local, state, and national level.

Co-facilitators Rachel Burns and Anthony McGhee advised the 2nd class of 10 members in day-long training sessions throughout the year.

As a tribute to Pat Jensen's legacy, the Pat Jensen Leadership Academy was established in 2017.
