Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® Endorse Wade for City Council

Charlottesville, Virginia – The Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® (CAAR) formally endorsed Juandiego Wade for Charlottesville City Council. The endorsement comes after candidate interviews and deliberations by both the Candidate Funding Project Team and the CAAR Board of Directors.

Wade’s significant public experience working on Charlottesville’s School Board combined with his broad knowledge of the City, and his commitment to the community impressed CAAR. CAAR believes Wade’s vocational training as a transportation planner will serve Charlottesville well as they embark on revising their Comprehensive Plan and Zoning Code.

While CAAR appreciated the positive positioning of Wade’s “Bringing People Together” Campaign, they were more impressed with his long history of direct personal involvement. Well known for leadership positions in the region’s vibrant non-profit sector, Wade has served on the Board of Directors of the United Way of Greater Charlottesville since 1992 and currently is the Chair. He mentors and tutors with great organizations in the community such as Computer4Kids, Charlottesville Abundant Life Ministries, 100 Black Men of Central Virginia, and Zion Union Baptist Church Tutoring Program.

“We are proud to stand up for Juandiego Wade for Charlottesville City Council,” said CAAR 2021 President Quinton Beckham. “We are appreciative of all who take the time and make the personal commitment necessary to run for local political office. As the REALTOR® party, we do not specifically endorse Democrat nor Republican, but rather those whose stated goals support our position that the underlying principles of private property ownership are central to the democratic process and increase the opportunity for all to have a choice of housing options suitable to their individual needs and desires. We believe contested races make for better campaigns and result in better public policy.”
