Two Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® Members Awarded National Association of REALTORS® Emeritus Status

Charlottesville, Virginia – Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® (CAAR) President Anthony McGhee recognized two members who achieved National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) Emeritus status during the June General Membership Meeting on Thursday, June 1st at the UVA Darden School of Business – Abbott Auditorium.

REALTOR® Emeritus status is awarded to an NAR member who has held membership for a cumulative period of 40 years.

Virginia (Ginny) Nelson of Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate III – North and Sue Plaskon of Long & Foster – Old Ivy were both awarded with a REALTOR® Emeritus certificate, an official letter of their achievement signed by NAR President William E. Brown, and a gold lapel pin.

CAAR President Anthony McGhee congratulates Ginny Nelson on receiving NAR Emeritus status.

On behalf of CAAR, we would like to congratulate Ginny and Sue on this commendable achievement.

About CAAR:

The Charlottesville Area Association of REALTORS® serves more than 1,000 real estate professionals and affiliate members throughout the City of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, and Nelson. Widely recognized as the leading voice for real estate in Central Virginia since 1925, CAAR members bring professionalism and high ethical standards to every business transaction. The Association advocates for the protection of private property rights and provides tools and technology for members to achieve expertise in serving the needs of customers and clients. The CAAR membership is committed to enriching the region's neighborhoods by engaging in a variety of educational programs as well as community service events each year.

NOTE: The term REALTOR® is a registered collective membership mark that identifies a real estate professional who is a member of the National Association of REALTORS® and subscribes to its strict Code of Ethics.

Sue Plaskon displays the REALTOR® Emeritus certificate she received for 40 cumulative years of NAR membership.
